of Education are used in weather condition controlled operations, and exposure to the majority of low traction situations can be controlled.

Improvements are continually being made in both vehicle safety systems and tire technology that will ultimately address these concerns. We have requested to be privilege to the documentation and testing results upon which Transport Canada has based their general recommendation that " Where winter designated tires are available they should be used on all wheel positions", to offset our concerns.

[redacted]

REGISTERED PROFESSIONAL ENGINEER
Province of New Brunswick
[redacted]
DATE
Province du Nouveau-Brunswick
INGÉNIEUR